

Christians

Muslims

The Christian holy book is called the _____.

The Christian place of worship is the _____.

The religious symbol of Christians is the _____.

Christians believe that _____ is the Messiah, or savior of the people.

Some Christian beliefs are: _____

An important holy city for both religions is _____.

Both religions are _____, which means belief in one god.

Muslims and Christians both believe in the Early Jewish scriptures including the story of creation/ Adam and Eve, Moses, the flood, Abraham, and many other Judeo-Christian Biblical stories.

Both religions believe that _____

Your soul goes to _____ if you have led a righteous life.

Both religions practice giving to those in need, going without for a period of time in remembrance, and prayer.

The Muslim holy book is called the _____.

Muslims worship in _____.

The religious symbol of Islam is _____.

Muslims believe that _____ was the Prophet of God/Allah, but that he was just the Messenger of the word and not to be worshiped.

Muslims recognize that _____ existed, but explain that he was one of many great prophets, like Abraham. They do not think he was the son of God.

Some Muslim beliefs are: _____
